Orders were issued accordingly in Govt Bro. no. 1850, dated 12th March 1903 and in pursuance of the said orders Singla chan was informed that Govt sanctioned the continuance of the allowance to Seshamma, wife of the insane brother of the deceased Ratnagiri Ramachendra chan, (the original recipient of the allowance) for her maintenance and his petition was accordingly rejected.

Govt no. 3860 of 18-4-05

Singla chan has submitted a memorial to H H the maharaja wherein he prays that, as the allowance in question is heritable property, as he performed the funeral rites of the deceased Ramachendra chan and as he is labouring under indigent circumstances in life, in fact, reduced to the state of earning his bread by begging, one-half of the allowance may be ordered to be given to him to maintain himself.

The Petitioner's argument that the allowance is heritable property cannot be upheld. From the commencement, the allowance was only a personal allowance and it would have been stopped in 1903, but for the fact that the husband of the present holder was insane and she had several children to support.

The present Petition may be that the orders already passed cannot be altered.

With reference to his memo No 255 dated 3.3.02 forwarding copy of Government official memo No 1306 dated 26.2.02 for enquiry and report, has the honor to forward herewith the marginally noted reports received from the Deputy Amildar of the French Rocks Sub Taluk, from which it will be seen that the rice allowance referred to in Lakshamma's petition was converted into a monthly cash allowance of Rs 3/- to be continued to the petitioner's deceased husband Ramachendra Char only during his life time, when the revised list of Inamdari Establishment was sanctioned. Hence the rice allowance prayed for by the petitioner cannot be granted to her without the sanction of Government though petitioner has produced an authenticated copy of an order showing that the allowance was intended to be continued to Ramachendrachar and his descendants while they continued to live at Adelkote

The deceased Ramachendrachar is reported to have left behind him a widow (petitioner) and an undivided brother of unsound mind who has a wife and four children. It would therefore appear to be a deserving case for the generous consideration of Government.

Order thereon:—

From the above,

it is observed that one Ratnajivi Sreenivasachar was enjoying a daily allowance of 2 Seers of rice from the Savings of the Sri Narayanaswami temple at Melkote.
Upon his demise, the allowance was continued to his son Ratnajivi Rama chendrachar, by the order of the Hassan Dt. Murzai Officer No 868 Dy 13th Feb: 869.
The late Murzai Superintendent reduced the allowance to one Seer per diem, (or Rs 3 per mensem) on the ground that there was not enough of Savings in the Instn to defray the cost, and directed the discontinuance of the allowance on the demise of the Ratnajivi

Ramachendra ~~Rao~~ char died in December 1901, and his wife Lakshmamma has now petitioned praying for the continuance of the allowance to her minor son Narasimhachar.

2. With refce to the above, the Govt. observe that the rice allowance in question is not a heritable property, but a compassionate grant for life to Ramachendrachar.)
The revised Jasdik Patta of the temple contains a remark that it was to be discontinued after his death. The petr is therefore not entitled to claim it as an inheritance from her husband. But as the Dy Commr reports that the deceased has left a who is without sufficient means of support ~~besides his~~ widow, and ~~an~~ ~~undivided brother of unsound~~ ~~mind who has four children~~ ~~depending upon the petr~~
